

AI-DND

KNOWLEDGE_SYSTEM.md

NPC Knowledge and Information System

Version 0.1

1. DESIGN PHILOSOPHY

No character knows everything.

Every NPC possesses:

- personal knowledge;
- professional knowledge;
- local knowledge;
- social knowledge;
- historical knowledge;
- beliefs;
- rumors;
- secrets.

Knowledge is limited.

Knowledge can be wrong.

Knowledge can become outdated.

2. KNOWLEDGE CATEGORIES

Every piece of information belongs to one or more categories.

Local Knowledge

Examples:

- villages;
- roads;

- forests;
 - nearby dangers;
 - local people.
-

Professional Knowledge

Examples:

- blacksmithing;
 - magic;
 - medicine;
 - hunting;
 - combat.
-

Political Knowledge

Examples:

- rulers;
 - wars;
 - factions;
 - alliances.
-

Historical Knowledge

Examples:

- ancient kingdoms;
 - old battles;
 - legends.
-

Religious Knowledge

Examples:

- gods;
 - rituals;
 - cults;
 - prophecies.
-

Criminal Knowledge

Examples:

- thieves;
 - smugglers;
 - black markets;
 - assassins.
-

Personal Knowledge

Examples:

- family;
 - friends;
 - enemies;
 - memories.
-

3. KNOWLEDGE LEVELS

Unknown

Heard Rumors

Basic Knowledge

Good Knowledge

Expert Knowledge

Master Knowledge

4. KNOWLEDGE CONFIDENCE

Every fact has confidence.

Examples:

100%

- certainty.

75%

- likely true.

50%

- uncertain.

25%

- probably false.

0%

- complete fabrication.
-

5. FARMER KNOWLEDGE

A farmer typically knows:

- local fields;
- weather;
- village rumors;
- nearby roads;
- nearby dangers.

A farmer usually does NOT know:

- politics;
 - magic;
 - distant lands;
 - military strategy.
-

6. BLACKSMITH KNOWLEDGE

A blacksmith knows:

- weapons;
- armor;
- metals;
- local gossip;
- soldiers.

A blacksmith usually does NOT know:

- advanced magic;
 - religion;
 - foreign politics.
-

7. HUNTER KNOWLEDGE

A hunter knows:

- animals;
- forests;
- tracks;
- monsters;
- weather.

A hunter may know:

- smugglers;
 - hidden paths.
-

8. MERCHANT KNOWLEDGE

A merchant knows:

- prices;
- roads;
- cities;
- politics;
- rumors.

Merchants often possess inaccurate information.

9. SOLDIER KNOWLEDGE

A soldier knows:

- combat;
- local wars;
- commanders;
- military rumors.

A soldier may know:

- secrets;
 - orders;
 - troop movements.
-

10. MAGE KNOWLEDGE

A mage knows:

- magic;
- history;
- artifacts;
- magical creatures.

Mages may have dangerous knowledge.

11. PRIEST KNOWLEDGE

A priest knows:

- religion;
- rituals;
- myths;
- social information.

Priests often interpret events through faith.

12. BANDIT KNOWLEDGE

Bandits know:

- roads;
- targets;
- crime;
- corruption;
- hidden camps.

Bandits rarely know official information.

13. NOBLE KNOWLEDGE

Nobles know:

- politics;
- economics;
- alliances;
- wars.

They often know little about ordinary life.

14. SECRET KNOWLEDGE

Some information is secret.

Examples:

- conspiracies;
- cults;
- hidden locations;
- ancient truths.

Very few NPCs know these facts.

15. FORBIDDEN KNOWLEDGE

Examples:

- true nature of the Fracture;

- ancient empire secrets;
- forbidden magic;
- cosmic entities.

Knowledge may:

- corrupt;
 - drive insane;
 - kill.
-

16. RUMORS

NPCs may believe rumors.

Examples:

Reality: The player killed a wolf.

Rumor: The player killed a dragon.

NPC reaction depends on belief.

17. FALSE KNOWLEDGE

NPCs may confidently state false information.

Example:

NPC:

"Everyone knows dragons disappeared centuries ago."

Reality:

Dragons still exist.

18. MEMORY DECAY

Knowledge can fade.

Examples:

Recent: 100%

After years: 50%

After decades: 10%

19. KNOWLEDGE TRANSFER

NPCs exchange information through:

- conversations;
 - letters;
 - merchants;
 - rumors;
 - books;
 - witnesses.
-

20. BOOKS

Books contain knowledge.

Books may be:

- accurate;
 - biased;
 - outdated;
 - false.
-

21. PLAYER KNOWLEDGE

The player only knows:

- what was learned;
 - what was witnessed;
 - what was read;
 - what was remembered.
-

22. LANGUAGE

Unknown language:

- cannot be read;
- cannot be understood.

Learning language unlocks knowledge.

23. OBSERVATION

Knowledge may be acquired by observation.

Example:

Player watches swordmaster.

Player learns:

- techniques;
 - style;
 - weaknesses.
-

24. AI NPC RESPONSE RULES

Before answering, AI checks:

1. Does the NPC know this?
 2. How reliable is the knowledge?
 3. Does the NPC want to share it?
 4. Is the NPC lying?
 5. Is the NPC mistaken?
-

25. LYING

NPCs may:

- lie;
- exaggerate;
- hide information;

- manipulate.
-

26. IGNORANCE

The most common answer in the world is:

"I don't know."

And that answer is often correct.

27. CORE RULE

Knowledge is power.

But nobody possesses all of it.