

AI-DND

FACTION_SYSTEM.md

Faction, Politics and Power System

Version 0.1

---

1. DESIGN PHILOSOPHY

Factions are not teams.

Factions are living organizations.

Every faction:

- has goals;
  - has fears;
  - has enemies;
  - has allies;
  - has internal conflicts;
  - changes over time.
-

2. FACTION STRUCTURE

Every faction consists of:

- ideology;
  - leadership;
  - members;
  - territory;
  - economy;
  - military;
  - reputation;
  - history.
-

3. FACTION TYPES

Examples:

- kingdoms;
  - guilds;
  - cults;
  - mercenary companies;
  - criminal organizations;
  - religious orders;
  - magical circles;
  - rebel groups.
-

4. FACTION GOALS

Examples:

- survival;
- expansion;
- wealth;
- knowledge;
- conquest;
- faith;
- revenge.

Goals evolve.

---

5. LEADERSHIP

Every faction has leaders.

Examples:

- king;
- council;
- guildmaster;
- high priest;
- warlord.

Leaders may die.

---

6. SUCCESSION

When leaders die:

- heirs inherit;
  - elections occur;
  - coups happen;
  - civil wars begin.
-

7. TERRITORY

Factions control:

- cities;
- villages;
- roads;
- mines;
- fortresses.

Territory changes.

---

8. FACTION REPUTATION

Each faction tracks:

- trust;
- fear;
- loyalty;
- hatred.

Players never see exact values.

---

9. ALLIANCES

Factions may:

- ally;
- trade;
- cooperate.

Alliances may break.

---

10. ENEMIES

Enemies create:

- wars;
- sabotage;
- espionage.

---

11. NEUTRALITY

Some factions avoid conflict.

Neutrality may end.

---

12. INTERNAL POLITICS

Factions contain:

- rival groups;
- corruption;
- conspiracies.

---

13. CIVIL WAR

Possible causes:

- succession crisis;
- famine;
- ideology;
- player actions.

---

14. ECONOMY

Factions require:

- money;

- food;
  - soldiers;
  - trade.
-

15. MILITARY

Military consists of:

- soldiers;
  - officers;
  - logistics;
  - supplies.
-

16. RELIGION

Religious factions influence:

- politics;
  - culture;
  - law.
-

17. CRIMINAL ORGANIZATIONS

Activities:

- smuggling;
  - theft;
  - assassinations.
-

18. MAGICAL ORGANIZATIONS

Activities:

- research;
  - education;
  - secrecy.
-

19. REBELLIONS

Rebellions may occur.

Causes:

- oppression;
  - taxes;
  - famine.
-

20. ESPIONAGE

Factions use:

- spies;
  - informants;
  - sabotage.
-

21. ASSASSINATION

Political murders affect history.

---

22. DIPLOMACY

Diplomatic actions:

- treaties;
  - negotiations;
  - threats.
-

23. PROPAGANDA

Factions spread:

- rumors;
- lies;
- ideology.

---

24. MEMBERSHIP

Players may:

- join;
- leave;
- betray;
- infiltrate.

---

25. LOYALTY

Loyalty changes:

- through actions;
- through time.

---

26. RANKS

Example:

Recruit ↓ Member ↓ Veteran ↓ Officer ↓ Leader

---

27. BENEFITS

Examples:

- training;
- protection;
- equipment;
- information.

---

28. OBLIGATIONS

Examples:

- taxes;

- service;
  - loyalty.
-

29. PLAYER INFLUENCE

Players may influence:

- politics;
  - wars;
  - leadership.
-

30. PLAYER BETRAYAL

Betrayal has consequences.

Examples:

- execution;
  - bounty;
  - war.
-

31. NPC MEMBERS

NPCs possess:

- loyalty;
  - ambition;
  - fears.
-

32. FACTION MEMORY

Factions remember:

- service;
  - crimes;
  - betrayal;
  - heroism.
-

33. WAR

Wars change:

- borders;
  - economy;
  - history.
-

34. PEACE

Peace changes:

- trade;
  - diplomacy.
-

35. COLLAPSE

Factions may collapse.

Reasons:

- war;
  - famine;
  - corruption.
-

36. NEW FACTIONS

New factions may emerge.

Examples:

- cults;
  - rebellions;
  - kingdoms.
-

37. LEGENDS

Legendary members become history.

---

38. STONE SLEEP

During Stone Sleep:

- wars continue;
  - leaders die;
  - alliances change.
-

39. AI-DM INTEGRATION

AI-DM controls:

- political consequences;
  - historical events.
-

40. CORE RULE

Factions do not exist for the player.

The player exists within their world.